PERSON SPECIFICATION - SUPPORT TIME AND RECOVERY WORKER

The person specification is a statement of the minimum standards required for the post to be performed at a reasonable level.

In shortlisting for interview, preference will be given to candidates who can demonstrate that they meet all the criteria for the post, however, this will not necessarily guarantee an interview as there may be a large number of candidates applying.

When completing the application form it is advisable to show how you have met the criteria, rather than simply stating that you have done so. For example, rather than stating “I have good verbal and written communication skills” you might state “I have made presentations on a number of occasions, regularly produced written reports” and so on.
